

Certain Verses

- left by the honored William Bradford

*From my years young in days of youth,
God did make known to me his truth,
And call'd me from my native place
For to enjoy the means of grace.*

*In wilderness he did me guide
And in strange lands for me provide. . . .*

*In fears and wants, through weal and woe,
As pilgrim passed I to and fro:*

*Farewell, dear children, whom I love,
Your better Father is above:
When I am gone, he can supply;
To him I leave you when I die.*

*Fear him in truth, walk in his ways,
And he will bless you all your days. . . .*
